

Print Exhibitions for hire

Hello! from Australia: Indigenous Australian Children's Books and illustration

An exhibition of limited edition prints from illustrations from books that showcase contemporary publishing of indigenous books in Australia, including illustrations by Bronwyn Bancroft, Joshua Button, Lisa Kennedy and Terry Denton.

Content: 18 mounted illustration prints and two large canvas prints from Steve goes to Carnival by Joshua Button and Welcome to Country by Lisa Kennedy.

Information panels for groupings of prints - Bronwyn Bancroft, Terry Denton (Jandamarra), Steve goes to Carnival.

Also included is a quotation by Erica Wager, Publisher of Children's Books at Allen & Unwin and information on Australia's leading Indigenous publisher Magabala Books and the work of the Indigenous Literacy Foundation.

Print presentation: 18 prints mounted on coreboard and covered with Mylar & two canvas prints - tabs supplied for adhering to wall or velcro compatible walls.

Insurance value: $4,000 The venue must take insurance cover for the period the exhibition is at the venue.

In transit insurance is covered by Books Illustrated.

Hire Fee: $770.00 plus freight costs (paid by venue) invoiced on signing of Loan Agreement